

State SWB Hails Sewer Extensions After July 1

GC Council Instructed
To Give Assurance Of Sewage Treatment Plant

Applications for extensions to the city's sanitary sewer system will be denied after July 1 unless the city assures the Illinois Sanitary Water Board that sewage treatment facilities are to be constructed, according to a letter received Monday night by Granite City council members.

Commenting on the notice, Mayor Davis said, "The ultimatum was anticipated, but I don't think we have too much to worry about. We've progressed as much as any city. They know we are progressing but probably feel we have reached the danger point."

He called for the letter to be referred to the new Public Works committee for study and recommendation. It was pointed out by several aldermen, that the city and the citizens' master sewer and drainage committee with officers of the state Sanitary Water Board and that the officials have expressed satisfaction with the accomplishments of the citizen group.

"You will recall," Mayor Davis said, "It was about 10 years ago they put us on 10-year notice to construct a sewage treatment plant to halt pollution of the Mississippi River. This is the first letter now to advise us the 10 years are up and that we are to halt sewer extensions."

Cloveshewer SWB OK'd

The letter from C. W. Klassen of the SWB advised the city of state approval for an extension of the Namekodi area sanitary sewer system to include the Addition 8 of Cloveshewer subdivision, south of Pontoon road.

Klassen stated that the city must provide sewage treatment facilities to abate present discharge of untreated sewage into the Mississippi River.

"This letter will serve as a notice that after July 1, 1961, permits for sewer extensions or increased discharge of waste to the present sewer system will be denied until construction of treatment facilities is assured."

Klassen could not be reached this week at Springfield, Mo., where he is assistant. D. B. Morton, toll-free, said that the word "assured" in the "law" and that the notice "brings into sharp focus the problems of the area."

Morton, who has been here to attend several meetings of the citizens master sewer and drainage committee and city council, said he is aware of the provisions made by the city, but that "Granite City is now on notice."

Explains "Assurance"
Explaining the "assurance" term in the notice, Morton said the city must either show final construction plans for a sewage treatment plant or give assurance of financing by council approval of a revenue program approved by a vote of the people.

"It doesn't have to be in that order," he explained, adding that the board is willing to discuss any problems with the city, should the notice result in halting extensions of subdivisions in the area.

"The city council has received the district-wide pollution abatement program outlined by the East Side Levee & Sanitary District and presently is conducting reports from a city study by the engineering firm of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwab, authorized in conjunction with the master sewer and drainage survey. Local industries also are conducting a separate pollution abatement study."

Gov. Kerner Is Sympathetic To Drainage Bills

Assurances were given by Gov. Otto Kerner to a Granite City delegation yesterday in Springfield that he was "very sympathetic" to the need for drainage legislation for Granite City and he would "put no road blocks in its path."

The governor added that he realized the acute situation existing in this city which necessitates the special legislation. Already advanced in the House, the two measures would permit East Side Levee and Sanitary District to increase its bonding power from 2½% to 4½%, thereby providing approximately $10 million for trunk lines in Granite City.

Arrangements for the conference were made by State Rep. "Curly" Harris, of Granite City, who outlined this city's drainage pollution study and the proposed construction program.

Further details were given to the governor by G. W. Hoelcher, chairman of the 25-man Citizens' Sewer and Drainage Committee, and by Mayor Leonard Davis. State Rep. Ralph Smith, of Alton, and C. E. Towry, of Edwardsville, also were present, editor of the Press-Record.

In support of the $10 million request, it was pointed out that Kerner had 4½% of levee district taxes come from the Madison county sector of the district, and very little money returning to this community in benefits, most of it being spent over 20 years in and around East St. Louis.

"It is our turn now," he said, "and this special legislation is the only way we have to get our share of the taxes we've paid in and also the only possible means we have to obtain funds for the drainage-pollution program."

All five levee district commissioners endorse the request and support the legislation. The increased bonding power will be effective only until Dec. 31, 1962, after which the 2½% limit is reinstated.

Transmission Stolen From Car In Driveway

The transmission of a 1960 auto was removed and stolen last night while the machine was parked in the owner's driveway. Owner Jerry Zidkowski, 20, of 2028 Thirteenth street, drove home about 11 p. m. yesterday and found the car in his driveway. The owner's father said the transmission was removed from the car and was not seen until the transmission was removed from the car and was not seen until the transmission was removed from the car.

Plans Made To Enforce County Law On Taverns

Deputies Are Issuing
Warnings On Closing;
Conference Is Sought

Plans are being made for enforcement of Madison county's tavern closing law as soon as penalties go into effect, the Press-Record learned yesterday from Sheriff George Musso.

Warnings currently are being issued, the sheriff said, adding that he still considers the deputy staff to be short-handed and that he will seek clarification of the closing law's application to establishments that also serve food.

Initial phase of the work will consist of scolding — cutting up — the existing alley surface and grading the old paved material into the desired shape. Later, road oil and chips will be applied.

The procedure was tested Monday and was fully in progress Tuesday, Lucas said, adding that it is hoped to complete the resurfacing by the end of July.

Because there will be an interval between the grading & oiling, Lucas stressed the importance of Madison county residents during the grading and resurfacing of the street.

It is illegal to turn trash in the alleys or to dump rubbish, grass or other materials in them, Lucas said, adding that the work will be especially helpful during the grading and resurfacing of the street.

Free Swim Classes
Start July 5 At Park

The second annual "learn to swim" program for youngsters eight through 15 years of age will be held at the Wilson Park swimming pool beginning Tuesday, July 5.

Registration for the six-week program will be limited to 200 boys and 200 girls. Park Recreation Director Harold Brown said Application blanks for the program will be published in Monday's Press-Record, and should be completed and turned in at the city pool office as soon as possible, Brown added.

He said no advance registration will be accepted and that participants must register in person or have their parents do so.

Classes, under the supervision of qualified instructors, will be held at the Wilson Park swimming pool on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. All sessions will run from 9:30 to 11:30 a. m.

An adult women's class, also for beginning swimmers, will be held once each week for six weeks, beginning July 5. The class will be in session from 11:45 a. m. to 12:45 p. m. A charge of 60 cents per session will be made for the adult class.

Meeting Night Set
Following the SIU recommendations, the council is now meeting regularly in the city court room on the third floor rather than in the second floor council chamber as was the case with the eight committee members, and the fourth Monday a regular meeting night with a special order of business—roll call, reading of minutes and reading of petitions before adjournment.

But—the council did not address itself to the SIU recommendation. The government experts suggested that instead of regular meetings on the first, third and fourth Mondays of the month, "the council establish its regular meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month."

Call Lucy Or Ruter
"Anything to be brought up before the council is to be submitted to the proper committee chairman. If he can't be reached, the message can be given to the committee chairman."

Resurfacing of All Alleys In Madison Begins

Full Utility Site Here
Opposed By State Study Unit

(Special from Springfield)

Describing Southern Illinois University's expansion since 1949 as a "12-year gallop," a subcommittee of the Illinois Visitation Commission on Higher Education today issued a report opposing full development of the proposed 2600-acre university campus east of the Quad-Cities.

Read this morning to commission members and the press by Rep. Ralph Sturgeon (R, Mo.), subcommittee chairman, the report asserted that "SIU has grown too fast and spread too thin."

The report continued, "We feel that if 100 years from now, the 1950-acre site is insufficient, a genius will appear on the horizon and cope with the problems."

Newsman and other observers in Springfield described the 12-page, single-spaced document as "unusual" in its presentation and said the many biting, sarcastic passages surprised them.

Single Board Urged
The report condemned deficiency appropriations voted for SIU by the state legislature—$1,833,000 between 1949 and 1959—and urged the expansion of the university of Illinois as the state's major university, said the state subcommittee.

It urged the state legislature to establish a single Illinois board of higher education, to be known as the "university of Illinois," and to set up the "university" in Illinois. "It described land condemnation as 'unjust, unfair, and cruel.'"

"The question is, 'can the taxpayers of Illinois afford to finance these universities?' Illinois is entitled to and should have no outstanding university that we can point to with pride, holding our heads high with pride in comparing our university with other state-supported universities."

"Disservice To Taxpayers"
The report also urged the taxpayers of Illinois to attempt to duplicate in facilities, salaries and services by having two state universities. The taxpayers cannot carry this burden.

"The amazing fact of growth of SIU is unbelievable and is unequalled. As stated before, 'SIU has arrived.' All coming-out parties must come to an end. 'Perhaps SIU should be called in from the 'great out-doors,' where it belongs. It is time to turn it to the kitchen of education, knead the dough and bake the bread!'"

"The committee believe SIU has changed their course of travel and is now pursuing the path of 'ungraded' scholarship. We note the recent sufficing in entrance qualifications and the quality of professors."

"We feel whoever refuses the auditor general of Illinois the report."

2 Seek Top Office Of Trades Council
Opposition for several offices developed last night as delegates of the Tri-City Trades & Labor Council met at the Labor Temple to nominate officers for an election July 8.

Edwin Reisk, who is completing his second one-year term and who has been president since April of last year, is president of the police officers' local. The joint council here, will be opposed by Ernest S. Rich, an experienced engineer. Reisk, "is a member of the machinist union."

For the office of vice-president, the incumbent Everett Morlen of Steelworkers Local 86, is opposed by Granite City Patrolman Everett Kelly, who is president of the police officers' local.

Boy, 17, Areas Second Drowning Victim in 4 Days

Mile West of Mitchell

A Madison boy, 17, drowned yesterday evening in a water-filled excavation pit near Mitchell, just nine hours after the area's second drowning victim of the year, a 32-year-old Madison man, was found floating in the Mississippi River, 2½ days after he disappeared.

Yesterday's victim, Benjamin Wade Arnold, son of Mrs. Luther Ray, 2007 Sken street, was within 45 feet of his goal when he disappeared in an "island" in the pit. He went down after struggling fiercely with two of his three swimming companions who were answering his pleas for help.

"It was awful," 18-year-old Robert Leavitt told the Press-Record. "We were swimming around the island (about 150 feet off the shoreline of the pit) when we found Benjamin was lagging behind."

Calls For Help
"He started calling for help, and Harold (16-year-old Harold Cantlon) and I started back for him. He had already gone under twice, but we were swimming to the island (about 150 feet off the shoreline of the pit) when we found Benjamin was lagging behind."

"We swam for shore and holloed for help. There were three other people there. I don't believe it at first, but then several dived in and tried to find Benj. Someone went to Mitchell for a doctor."

A witness to the drowning, Jack Patrick, 34, of 401½ Division street, who attempted a rescue, told the Press-Record he decided to swim. "Patrick swam to the island and was sitting on the bank with his two sons when the Arnold boy and his companions arrived, but they were too late."

"They were too late," Patrick said. "They also were cutting up the boy's body. I thought they were joking when they began cutting up."

Only A "Fair" Swimmer
The youth's uncle, described by his family as only a fair swimmer, had gone to the pit with a son of Mrs. Mary Leavitt, 2044 Harris street, Madison, and two brothers, Frank Cantlon, 17, and Harold Cantlon, 16, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cantlon, 2704 Harris street, in the Leavitt boy's car.

They arrived at the pit about 5:30 p. m. and it was only a few minutes later that he disappeared. County authorities were notified at 6:45 p. m. The pit, several thousand feet long, paralleling U. S. Byways 26 and 28, is about 25 feet deep and was dug to fill for approaches to the railroad overpass for new Federal Route 270 at Mitchell, and is filled with rain and spring water. With the arrival of warm weather, it has become an area swimming hole, but is posted with "no trespassing" signs.

"It's too bad," one of the victim's relatives said, "that Madison doesn't have a proper place for youngsters to swim."

3 Rescue Squads
The search for the youth was started within minutes after his disappearance. First to arrive was the rescue squad of the Mitchell volunteer fire department. They were joined by the Long Lake volunteer rescue squad and later by the Wood River volunteer squad. Four deputies and state troopers also were on the scene, as well as hundreds of spectators.

Rescue squad boats circled the area with grappling hooks. The boy was found at 7:15 p. m. and was taken to the hospital.

Venice Drive On Pellet
Vandalism Announced
A crackdown against air rifles and slingshots was announced today by the Venice police. The police were joined by the receiving two vandals reports.

Pellets damaged five windows at the home of James Daniels, Second and Granite streets, Tuesday night and the window was shattered. A truck and wagon at the home of Louis Lake, 1015 Second street, last night.

MORE ABOUT

GC Council Spins Wheels

Lucy (switchboard operator Mrs. Lucille Stucke) or Ruth (the mayor's secretary, Mrs. Ruth Eberhart), the mayor explained. In answer to Alderman Casner Skushik's question on public participation in council sessions, Mayor Davis said individuals or groups can discuss their problems with the proper committee, and if the results are not satisfactory, they may then appear before the council.

Alderman Walter Nona suggested that new business be recognized by a majority vote of the council rather than a two-thirds vote requirement. Mayor Davis agreed, pointing out that other wise some action might be stymied by a few aldermen.

The order of business for regular council sessions will follow the order—roll call, reading of minutes, petitions and communications, reading of claims, officers' reports, committee reports, special committee reports, unfinished business and new business.

The new committees and the chairman are—Finance, Paul Rutledge; Personnel, Arthur Weiser; Public Works, Samuel Whitmer; Inspection, Rufus LeMaster; Planning, Donald Partney; Traffic, Charles Meyer; and Library, Whitmer.

$5000 For Plan Group
The major item "referred to proper committee" was a suggestion by Partney for a $5000 appropriation to be used in 1961-62 for proposed expansion of the city council planning committee, and the City Plan Commission.

Under the SUI report, the council's Planning committee would take over most functions of the Board of Local Improvements and the City Plan Commission also would assume some of those responsibilities. Partney asked the council to consider the appropriation as set forth in the SUI report for establishing a system of filing, hiring of a clerk and providing office expenses.

A resolution, submitted by Simon Blada, was "referred to proper committee." He is asking the council to adopt the resolution to be forwarded to the legislature, specifying that pensioners with an income of $100 or less a month be exempt from paying sales tax.

Requests, Problems, Complaints
Stop sign requests, drainage problems, parking zones and house trailer requests—all set forth by individual aldermen Monday night—also were "referred to proper committee" with the "proper committee" to be designated during the meeting of the mayor and committee chairmen.

Mayor Davis took notes on each item and said each would be brought up again with the chairman.

Angle parking between the sidewalk and curb was requested for 2629 Iowa street and for 125 feet at the Dewey Avenue Methodist Church.

Permission is being sought for two house trailers at 3005 Iowa street and at 1830 Johnson road, for a sewer tap-on at 1338 Norwood drive—a lot outside the city limits.

Complaints "referred to proper committee" were continued flooding on Saratoga avenue, a drainage problem in the 3200 block of Dodge avenue and violations in the 1500 block of St. Clair avenue, apparently resulting from settling at an excavation for sewer repairs.

City Bill List Totals $7507 For Two Weeks

A two-week bill listing totaling $7507 was approved Monday night by Granite City council members, who delayed payment of two bills which were referred to the Finance committee for study.

Upon approval by the committee, the two bills are to be paid. They amount to $833, including $263 to City Engineer David Johnston and $270 to D. G. Lampher.

Johnston's bill was submitted for the 20th street sewer repair project and includes $300 in special wages, $22 wages for the project engineer with a contract overhead payment of 60% amounting to $211.

Lampher's bill includes repairs to traffic signals, repair of lights and doors at the city hall, replacing plumbing in the city garage, replacing a motor in a police department air conditioner and motor repairs to drinking fountain at fire house No. 5.

It was reported Johnston's charges were covered in his contract to the city, and Comptroller John Dober explained Lampher's bill was available for odd job work at the city hall and elms.

Downtown Stores Set "Lucky Buck" Days
"Lucky Buck" Days, a downtown Granite City sales promotion campaign, will start tomorrow, with more than 40 stores participating. Ted Berger, chairman of the Downtown Granite City Committee, said today.

Up to 500 prizes of $1 each will be awarded to persons whose names are selected at random from the Quack-City telephone directory by members of the committee, he said.

None of the winners will be posted on windows of participating stores. No registration or purchase is required for the promotion to be held tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.

"In connection with the event, stores are running special items, which appear in an advertisement elsewhere in this issue. The promotion is the third since the downtown committee was formed to stimulate and improve downtown business."

Autos Collide On Route 3 Near Mitchell

Autos driven north on Route 3 by Gerald Fisher, 53, of 3008 East 1st avenue, and Claude Leonard Croke, 18, of 1924 Benton street, were involved in an accident Tuesday afternoon a half-mile south of Mitchell.

State troopers said the autos hooked bumpers as Fisher was passing Croke, and the Croke auto went out of control and off the pavement where it struck road construction machinery.

No injuries were listed.

Auto Aerial Stolen

Earl Butler of Florissant, Mo., reported to police Monday, while he was at a downtown market, the aerial was taken off his 1960 auto.

Man Arrested Here For County On Check Charge

Making a check to defraud was the charge placed against a man arrested Monday by Granite City police on a warrant signed by the Edwardsville police chief.

Charles L. Birmingham, 55, who gave his address as Wood, Ill., was turned over to county authorities Monday night and is being held on $2000 bond.

He was bound over to the county court after a preliminary hearing yesterday before Justice of the Peace Earl Vuagniaux in Edwardsville.

Birmingham allegedly wrote a check for $465 to buy furniture at an Edwardsville store, taking some items with him. The check, drawn on a Wood River bank, was returned, marked "no account."

State Capitol NEWS

Permission to raise the tax rate for library service from .10 to .20 per cent was granted to three legislative bills introduced last week by Gov. Otto Kerner last week. The bills authorized cities, villages, incorporated towns and townships to establish and maintain free public libraries, a reading room, provided for public library service, and amended an act relating to creation of public library districts. Other bills signed by the governor authorized the sale of surplus and unneeded property in public library districts, required municipalities to file their proposed names with the Secretary of State and validated notices to issue bonds at school district elections although the notices do not bear the name of the district school board president.

An appeal to farmers in the Illinois pheasant range to delay mowing operations as long as is practically possible, to mow with caution, and to leave unmowed strips of hay along field edges is issued by William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation. The peak of the hay mowing season coincides with the peak of the pheasant nesting cycle, and Lodge predicts four out of every 10 pheasants actively nesting in hay fields will be injured or killed by mowing operations. A minimum of 20% of the nests are destroyed each year.

The Illinois State Register of Springfield has been named the official state newspaper of Illinois for the fiscal year beginning July 1 and ending June 30, 1962. As official state newspaper, the Register will print advertisements requesting bidding on state contracts in public works projects, highway construction and purchasing as required by state statute. The Chicago News-Gazette is the present official state newspaper.

Gov. Kerner has appointed C. Virgil Martin, president of Carson Pirie Scott & Co., Chicago, and founder of the Illinois Retail Merchants Association, to a two-year term as member of the Illinois Public Aid Commission. He succeeds Mrs. William Thompson of Galesburg, recently deceased.

Gov. Kerner met last week with Canadian officials in Washington to discuss ways of opening lines of communication with the Canadian government so that the Great Lakes Commission can explore with Canada the cooperative means of gaining the fullest possible management and development of Great Lakes water resources. Discussion will include plans to divert additional water now wasted in the Detroit River into the Great Lakes. Kerner also discussed the Great Lakes development project with the Illinois Congressional delegation and the area Redevelopment Administration of the Department of Commerce and aid and vocational training at all levels of government to solve the continuing problems of unemployment in such areas as the near south side of Chicago. The governor's trip to Washington was made primarily to introduce President John F. Kennedy at the National Conference on International Economic and Social Development.

Warning of impending changes in insect activity in Illinois are issued by the Illinois Natural History Survey. They include:

Chinch bug damage, appearing as dead spots, may occur in thin open stands of small grains within the next few weeks in central and eastern Illinois. If bugs are extremely numerous throughout the field, 15 pounds of dieldrin may be applied prior to seven days before harvesting.

A myxoma virus is approaching the damaging stage, particularly in Western and Southwestern Illinois. Treatment is advisable if six or more worms are found per linear foot of drill row, or 10 to 12 per square foot in grasses.

Black cutworms are appearing in corn in central and western Illinois and flea beetles are feeding on corn in the southern half of the state. Corn borer emergence ranges from 5 to 20 percent in the north.

Potato leafhoppers, which attack second growth alfalfa, have migrated to Illinois, concentrating in an area north of a line from Quincy to Lawrenceville with highest populations in central Illinois.

Bean leaf beetles are attacking soybeans, sometimes as they emerge from the ground. Pea aphids are most concentrated in the north. Many are developing wings and migrating to other crops.

MORE ABOUT Full University

right to audit the books of the SIU Foundation, was a bold statement to the citizens of the state," Rep. Stephenson noted verbally that the audit since has been authorized and is in progress.

"How could an investigation be avoided when actions of this type are admitted to under oath? We found nothing illegal in the operation of SIU. We do find a 'looseness' in procedure."

"SIU has stated it will need $194 million for expansion purposes in the next ten years, not to mention other means in increased operating costs which will be required from the taxpayers of this state. It is interesting to note that $194 million is the equivalent to 21 private universities such as Bradley from the ground up, including buildings, furnishings and equipment."

"Relatively Unpopular?" "Bradley has 3000 full-time and 2000 part-time students. Can we justify the necessity of a national Bradley university operating in the relatively unpopulated portion of Illinois?" Dr. Morris has great vision in the future.

It divided the blame among him, the SIU board of trustees, state legislature and governor for its assertion that SIU has stood "at the public trough" appropriations and gobbled up more than their fair share."

Citing the deficiency appropriations, the subcommittee said: "During this period, the other five state universities lived within the appropriations granted them by the legislature. SIU also had problems of expansion."

Conclusions listed were:

"1. Dr. Morris and the board of trustees should certainly take cognizance of the fact that their terrific expansion is under the scrutiny of the citizens of this state."

"2. That requests for deficiency emergency appropriations to the legislature should cease."

"3. That the most feasible answer to this problem is the establishment of one board of higher education in Illinois."

"4. That the legislators should be 'alerted' in their thinking and carefully scrutinize requests that come before them."

"5. We assume that all the activities and programs of SIU have come about with the knowledge and consent of the board. Do you plan a school of law, medicine and veterinary? We are not opposed to progress; the question is can we afford it?"

"6. We therefore say to the board that a leveling off period is in order. We further recommend to his excellency, the governor of Illinois, that in the event of a special session that the necessity of one state board of higher education be included in his call."

"If no special session is called for other matters of the state, it is our judgement that the problem of higher education in Illinois is so serious that he do call a special session so that the entire field of higher education can be properly dealt with."

We refer you to the state need in our report that an additional $194 million for SIU during the next 10 years is in the making. We also feel that the other five universities may have long-range goals in mind."

Next time you serve clear chicken soup, wilt some watercress sprigs in it as you heat. Add sliced water chestnuts, too, if you are offering this to company."

"You carry your head rather high," said the owl to the giraffe when he poked his nose into the beak.

Any all-purpose barbecue sauce used for chicken may also be used for hamburgers being cooked on the outdoor grill.

There is only one jack of all trades—it's the almighty dollar.

City Auto License Sales At 10,650

A threat to begin wholesale tagging of Granite City motor vehicles not displaying 1961-62 city auto license stickers was issued today by Police Chief Raymond Willard, who declined to say when arrests would start. By noon today, 10,650 stickers

Had been sold at $3 each, according to City Clerk A. L. Stevens.

During the past fiscal year May 1 to April 30, there were 11,905 stickers sold.

Although the deadline for purchasing the licenses was set for June 15, police declined to postpone issuance of arrest tickets because of spiraling sales.

Capital Impresses Mayor—But He Prefers Granite City

Awed by the sights and sounds of the nation's capital and possessing a strengthened opinion of his own position in government, Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City during a cocktail hour he said they sat down and shared thoughts and governmental problems as casually as if they were old friends instead of acquaintances of the moment.

In addition to the national conference, Mayor Davis also attended the opening session of an international conference of mayors or their equivalent at which representatives of 90 different western nations were present.

He said it gave him a feeling of pride just to see such landmarks as the Washington Monument for the first time, and added that what he saw on his visit also made him proud to have the chance to pay taxes.

"Smoother Functions Here"

"But I think our city government here operates a lot smoother than national government," he added with a laugh.

Regarding a visit to the Senate, one of his few disappointments, he told how only five senators were in attendance, of which none seemed to know or even care what the speaker was saying.

"I don't see how they ever get anything done!" was the shocked response of one spectator, the mayor reported.

Mayor Davis, one of about 462 mayors from the United States and an undetermined number of commissioners and city managers at the convention, said he was especially impressed by the cordial attitude and interest shown to small-town mayors by large city mayors.

500 Beetle Traps Placed In Quad-Cities This Week

The U. S. Department of Agriculture is setting out "bobby traps" in the Quad-City area this week.

The traps are for Japanese beetles, highly destructive plant pests which cost farmers and other residents of infested areas more than $10 million each year in crop losses and control costs.

Actually the beetles probably are not in this area yet, according to James McTaggart, government supervisor in charge of installing the traps. But because they do have a foothold in nearby East St. Louis, the supervisor said, there is danger of their spreading in this direction.

"They're probably one of the greatest hitchhikers known," McTaggart said, "since they hide not only on cars and trains but planes as well."

The grub destroys turf by feeding on the roots of the grass. The adult feeds on flowers, shrubbery, trees, fruits and other crops, such as corn. The nearby beetles will be in the area by the end of another week.

One or two traps will be placed in each block and will be inspected every week by George Topal, of 1735 Collinsville avenue, and Glenn Hofstetter of East St. Louis. Both are state employees.

Any beetles found will be sent to a laboratory at Glenn Eilert for verification of species and sex, and the information obtained will contribute to a joint state-federal program to control the pests.

The traps, which will remain in the area until about Sept. 1, are lantern-shaped devices mounted on four to five-foot steel rods. Each trap contains a bait jar that attracts beetles by smell. Beetles lure into the trap slide down a one-way funnel into a bottle.

McTaggart said he did not believe the beetles had ever migrated to the Quad-Cities, although they have infested the East St. Louis area for the past few years.

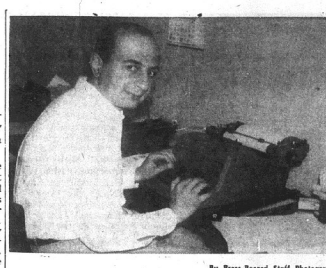

He said the method most often used to control the beetles, which have a life-span of one year, is aerial spraying.

Petty Larceny Charge Brings Jail And Fine

Poiled in the act of taking zinc pigs from a pond on a railroad car near Granite City Steel Co. by plant guards Monday night, two Madison men pleaded guilty to petty larceny charges before Police Magistrate Andrew Gasparovic Jr.

Frank Glenkoski, 22, of 1105 McCambridge avenue, was taken to the county jail Tuesday night to begin serving a 60-day sentence for his part in the incident. Robert W. Gorman, 24, a resident of 1105 McCambridge avenue, was free on $500 property bond and his case taken under advisement until July 17, police reported.

Police said the warrants were signed by Michael Skubish, plant guard. The arrests were made at 9 p.m. Monday.

OGUZ BULENT NAYMAN, from Turkey, who this week will join the Press-Record news staff for the summer. He is a graduate student in journalism at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, and is in this country on a Fulbright scholarship, one of the most select of grants for foreign study.

Student-Journalist From Turkey Here For Summer

Oguz Bulent Nayman, a former army lieutenant and history teacher in his native Turkey, will be a reporter for the Press-Record during the summer.

A dark, learned 32-year-old citizen of Ankara, Oguz (pronounced "O's") is in Granite City during the summer break at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale. He will enter his second year of graduate study in journalism there this fall.

Studying in America on a Fulbright scholarship, he began his April to tape broadcasts in the Turkish language for the Voice of America program. He discussed American university life and SIU in previous columns.

He hopes to be one of the teachers when the University of Ankara becomes the first Turkish university to offer journalism on the college level. One of six in the country, the university has 40,000 students.

Serving in Korea in 1953 as a special services officer, Nayman was part of the Turkish contingent which patrolled the peace line during and following armistice talks.

After the prescribed two-year term in the Army, he returned to Ankara and found a position there with the U.S. Information Service as chief of the distribution service. For a year he translated reports and letters.

In 1956 he took over the service.

His bi-monthly newspaper, Haber, as editor meant he did all the writing, editing and making up the paper, for he was the only worker. Its main purpose was to give a Turkish language translation to American service reports and news.

After three years with the newspaper, he competed with 500 other Ankara students for 15 Fulbright scholarships and a grant from Rotary International. He arrived in the United States in August 1960, and spent a month at the University of Kansas Orientation Center at Lawrence before going to Carbondale.

At SIU he studied for a term under journalism historian Frank Luther Mott and took courses in history and sociology in addition to journalism.

When his Fulbright scholarship lapsed at the end of May he was awarded a graduate fellowship for another year by the university.

Currently a reserve lieutenant in the Turkish Army, Nayman graduated from the Faculty of Theology at the University of Ankara in 1953. He then taught history for a year at a high school in the city, before entering the army.

His father is a retired army officer, and his younger brother is an architect living in Germany. Unmarried, he has traveled in Europe and the Near East, as well as in this country.

The Downstate Fisherman

(Compiled by the Southern Illinois University Information Service from area reports.)

It was a long wait, but the bass run at Crab Orchard Lake finally got underway. Lake veterans such as Nick Masters, Charlie Friedline, Bill Watson and Jrv. Pettiburn of Carbon dale all scored last week, and although prospects dipped slightly after mid-week rains, when the level topped the spillway again, most of the faithful hook for a sustained period of good fishing. As of now, the lake is clearing well. A Carbon dale report from the lake's edge, where 3.76 inches of the stuff fell last week, says the lake is clearing well.

At Horseshoe Lake, where 3.76 inches of the stuff fell last week, the lake is clearing well. The week saw lots of one to two pound bass taken by anglers. Parker and the lake vision hasn't been sensational. The lake is quite clear.

Others who got around the lake quickly during the 7:30 p.m. trial included Bill Myers of Wood River, who had the second fastest time.

Tomorrow is a reflection—a reflection of what you do today.

It's summertime... and a busy season, indeed, for Mrs. Clara Parker, commercial teller at Granite City Trust and Savings Bank. During the day, she tends to the bank's Sidewalk Teller where folks can cash checks, make loan payments, tend to many other banking needs. In the evening and weekends, you'll find Clara and her family at Fudde's Pool, where her husband, Keith, is the manager. (During the winter he's a high school counselor.)

In addition to heightened summer activities, Clara enters actively in community life the year-round. For instance, she's a member of the Jr. Minerva Club, a Granite City service organization, the St. Elizabeth's Altar Society, and the Coolidge Junior High School PTA. Meanwhile, Clara takes care of her family, consisting of husband, Keith, and three children, Patricia, Jan and June Lee. Her hobbies are sports, cooking and baking (and, Clara has a reputation for being an excellent cook!)

Now residing at 1909 Garfield, Clara attended St. Simon and Jude's Parochial school in Gillespie, Illinois, and was graduated from Gillespie Community High School. It's friendly folks like Clara Parker who serve you at Granite City Trust that makes banking here such a pleasure. A gracious, friendly personality, a conscientious interest in the community, and the training and ability to do her job well... these are typical of all the folks who serve you at "Your Friendly Bank"... another reason why more and more folks are making Granite City Trust their bank! —Adv.

Tips To Residents Here For Burglary Prevention Week

With the eighth annual Burglary Prevention Week to be observed locally and throughout the nation on Sunday, June 25, through Saturday, July 1, Quad-City police again are urging compliance with rules that have been found to aid in reducing home break-ins.

Plans announced on behalf of Granite City Police Chief Raymond Willard, Venice Chief Frank DeWitt and Madison Chief Barney Freundt include an appeal that all local residents take necessary precautions to protect their homes and property upon leaving at the day, evening, weekend or a vacation trip.

The Illinois Police Association, which coordinates statewide observance, points out that many "home burglaries" are the result of carelessness and could be prevented. Statistics show that homes average for four of every ten burglaries. This can be reduced by taking a few simple steps to discourage theft, most of them involving little or no expenditure.

Suggestions include the following:

Lived-In Appearance

Leave two or three lights turned on in the house during evening hours. Timers that automatically turn lamps on and off every day are available and are especially useful when a family is away on vacation. Lights going on and off even-ingly create a "lived-in" appearance in the home and tend to confuse and discourage a would-be burglar.

Put good locks on all outside doors. It is not uncommon to find substandard jimmy-proof locks on the front doors, but the cheapest possible lock holding an outside porch door.

French doors, too, usually are secured with only the flimsiest sort of device. Look over all doors in your house and see just how secure they are.

Windows Vulnerable

Windows are usually a weak point. Screens and storm windows should be hooked on the inside to prevent them from being lifted off their frames. Safety latches which permit windows to open only part way, sufficient for ventilation, also are a good idea. Since some burglars are expert climbers, be sure to use them on second-floor windows.

Stop all deliveries when leaving for a vacation. It is better to call the dairy than leave a note for the milkman; burglars can read, too. Talk to the post office about holding your mail, too. Ask a neighbor to pick up circulars or handbills that might be left on your porch while you are gone.

Always close your garage door. An empty garage with doors open will catch the attention of any thief and indicate no one is home.

Hospital Patient

Clyde Myers, 2412 Iowa street, has been confined in St. Elizabeth Hospital since Sunday, where he is undergoing treatment.

Art Of Bug Killing Outlined By An Expert

Approximately 99 out of 100 criminals are either entomophobic or insecticidephobic, says John Downey, Carbondale, Southern Illinois University entomologist.

The first word means a person who unreasonably fears of insects. The second was coined by John Downey, to describe people who are far too trigger-happy with the bug bomb when they try to fight their fear.

Downey has been viewing with some alarm the way people nowadays plug insecticide cans off the store shelves as though they were buying leaves of bread. And, he says, many shoppers pay about as much attention to the directions on a bug bomb as they do to the list of ingredients on a bread wrapper.

Apparently convinced that if a little of anything is good, more is better, too many household insecticide campaigns were all-out war without regard to the fact that insecticides are poisonous. "It is a good precautionary rule of thumb," Downey says, "to assume that all insecticides are not safe. Every insecticide on the market says this quite plainly, but hardly anyone reads it."

Many household insecticides have a low residual toxicity; meaning you spray, get a "quick knock-down" of bugs, and the chemicals break up rapidly, losing their poisonous properties. But others, like DDT and chlordane, remain potent for weeks after application and it's these that should not be used indoors.

1. Don't use insecticides near foodstuffs or within reach of children.

2. Don't store insecticides near foodstuffs or within reach of children.

3. Don't breathe too much of the spray, mist or dust.

4. Don't allow solutions to remain on hands or exposed portions of the body. Wash with soap and warm water after each application. Even DDT in an oil solution is absorbed through the skin.

5. Don't let clothes get wet from insecticides. Change soiled clothes immediately.

6. Don't use solutions or oil-based sprays on animals. Dusts, wettable powders for sprays, or emulsions may be safe.

7. Don't spray oil-based insecticides (those containing kerosene-insecticides) near open flames, sparks or electrical circuits. They may explode (The empty container should not be burned).

8. Don't spray on walls, rayon or other fabrics which may stain easily.

9. Don't spray oil-based mixtures on asphalt-tile floors or certain plastics or linoleums which may soften or discolor (without first testing for possible damage).

10. Don't apply chlordane or lindane to rugs or carpets (except along edges of wall-to-wall carpet or in cracks beneath rugs), clothing, blankets, or furniture.

Probable Pet 'Possum Poses Pesky Problem

A 'possum that found its way into the city ended up in a clothes dryer in a home at 2710 Grand avenue.

Mrs. Elvira M. Thurber, co-owner of the Thurber Agency at 1532 State street, happily admitted yesterday that she did not find the little animal herself, although it stalled her dryer.

"It started all right and then all of a sudden I heard a thump, thump-thump and stopped it," she said.

A repair man finally found the troublesome 'possum, a creature which feigns death when caught wrapped around the drum and not pretending at all.

"It didn't enter my head that an animal would be in there," Mrs. Thurber related. "I'd have died if I'd reached in and pulled that thing out!"

Granite City police theorized that the animal was brought into the city as a pet and then escaped. "It probably got into the machine through a lint pipe," Mrs. Thurber said.

The average American family is currently spending only 20 percent of its income, after taxes, for food. This proportion is the lowest in history.

First successful oil well in the United States was drilled at Titusville, Penn., in 1859.

PATIENCE NEEDED
Skill and imagination are called upon to take pictures of trout in action. The ingenious photographer first mounts his camera at water level, sets up an electric light beam in front, then maneuvers the fly to attract the fish. As the trout leaps through the beam, the electric eye automatically fires camera and speed-lights.

Open House At Ill. Masonic Home Sunday

A personal welcome to attend the 14th annual pilgrimage to the Illinois Masonic Home Sunday at Sullivan, Ill., has been extended by Dr. A. E. MacGillivray, former Granite City osteopath, to Masonic readers of the Press-Record and their friends.

Conducted tours of the buildings and grounds will begin at 10 a.m. and lunches may be obtained if desired. The home, located on Highway 121 between Decatur and Mattoon, is to sustain senior Masons, their wives and widows.

"Last year there were more than 7000 visitors here for the homecoming days," MacGillivray wrote, "and the grounds can take care of a few thousand more."

MacGillivray, who grows on orchids at the home, plans to display his collection of plants and explain how simple it is to grow them. The collection is kept in the basement under the administration office.

"Anyone who can grow African violets can grow orchids," he said.

Rooms at the home are being reserved for those who plan to attend the Saturday night meeting and stay over for the pilgrimage Sunday.

GCHS To Double Driver Training, At $2680 Saving

The Granite City school district will be paid $2680 to double the size of its driver education program this fall.

This unique development has been noted in comparing increased costs with a higher state reimbursement resulting from certification of a larger number of drivers.

Under the one-car program in effect in 1960-61, the net cost to school taxpayers was $5510, based on a $10,400 reimbursement and costs of $15,910. The costs consisted of $14,910 in teachers' pay and $1000 for gasoline, oil and insurance.

Under the two-car plan approved for 1961-62, the district will pay only $2850, based on a $18,400 reimbursement and costs of $21,230—$19,030 for teachers and $2200 for gasoline, oil and insurance.

The state pays $32 for each pupil successfully completing 30 hours of classroom instruction in driver safety and education and six hours of behind-the-wheel practice, while $8 is paid for those with 30 hours of classroom instruction only. The latter payment is made only if the school has a behind-the-wheel program in operation. At GCHS, all sophomores must take the driver safety and education class.

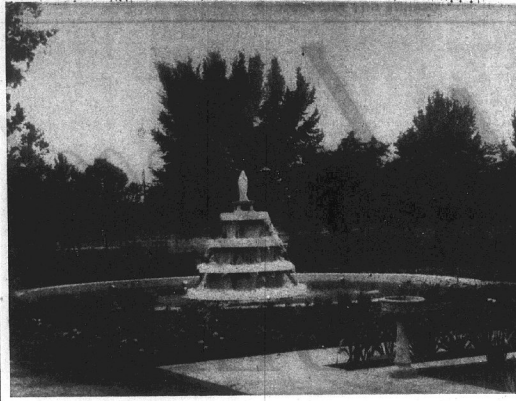

The high school for 1960-61 certified 500 students at $8, a total of $4000, and 200 at $32, an aggregate of $6400. Estimates for the new school year are 700 at $8, for $5600, and 400 pupils at $32, for $12,800.

Rev. and Mrs. Maxton Hold Open House Sunday

Rev. and Mrs. David B. Maxton and their daughter, Ruth, will hold an open house for members and friends of the First Presbyterian Church congregation and the Tri-City Ministerial Association at their new manse, 20 Oaklawn drive, on Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m.

The new $30,000 seven-room home includes a patio area, bath and a half, two-car garage and full basement. Material is a light red brick.

The former manse at 2515 Delmar avenue, from which the Maxtons moved in January, is now the residence of the church's director of church education, Miss Norma Schlobohm.

NEW FOUNTAIN AND POOL at Lee Park, Venice, now in operation. The pool is 40 feet in diameter and fountain is 10 feet in height. A three-foot statue, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foley, Venice, stands atop the fountain. Colored lights illuminate fountain and pool at night. Cost of project was $2500, according to Marion Grashong, park superintendent. Four flamingo-type statues, purchased at cost of $107, have been placed in pool and framework was installed across the pool to support vine-type plants.

Work On School Addition At St. Elizabeth's Set

Construction of the $121,230, six-classroom addition at St. Elizabeth's school, 2300 Pontoon road, is scheduled to start Monday, according to Architects Gabriel and Duggeroff.

The architects, who drew plans for the 104-foot by 59-foot structure, said the general contract has been awarded by the Springfield Diocese office to Mr. H. Wolfe & Co., 2201 Adams street, which submitted a low bid of $91,000.

In addition to the general contract, separate low bids were let on other phases of construction. Contracts were awarded to R. Orton Electrical Co., 1818 Cleveland and Blvd., on the basis of a low bid of $8845 for electrical work; Galloway-Von Gruening Plumbing and Heating Co., Niedringhaus avenue and Iowa street, $7986 for plumbing work, and a $15,603 contract was awarded to the same firm for heating and ventilating work.

Included in the plans are 36-foot by 24-foot classrooms, three restrooms, a 28x15 storage room, a 17x12 teachers' lounge, a 59x18 entrance way, parking facilities for an additional 32 automobiles, a new heating system and a janitor closet.

The building is to be connected with the new auditorium and school and is planned to meet future enrollment demands. It will increase the number of classrooms to 16.

The one-story brick structure is the third in six years to be erected at the parish grounds. The school was constructed in 1953 and the auditorium was built in 1958. Church services are held in the auditorium.

Two other buildings are being planned and include a church and convent.

Nash Tells Club of His Governor Duties

Warren Nash, 17-year-old Granite City high school senior, who served as Youth Governor of Illinois in April, addressed the Twilight Optimist Club Monday on his responsibilities while presiding over the youth legislature.

Nash, who became the first local teenager to be selected for the position, told the club that of the 172 bills that came up for vote, only 15 reached his desk for approval.

He vetoed six, while signing nine into law.

Nash said he thought the legislature had been instrumental in bringing about the passage of a bill that put a 65 mile per hour speed limit on Illinois highways in 1957.

The youth legislature has passed the bill in four previous sessions and it was ultimately considered and passed by their adult counterparts, Nash explained.

A group of 25 delegates from YMCA clubs in the Quad-Cities area was among the 300 teen-age legislators taking part in the April session. High school students served as senators, representatives, pages and reporters and used facilities of statehouse politicians in Springfield.

The youths in preparing for the two-day affair had drawn up bills designed to correct problems which they believed existed in the state.

The Optimist Club meeting, held at the Rose Bowl, was presided over by Charles Meyer, president.

Receives Master's Degree

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

Galaxie styling is inspiring more admiration (and imitation) than any other car on the road!

This is the look that started with Thunderbird—sleek the Galaxie—and quickly became the styling success of the Sixties.

Many cars have tried to copy it. No car has succeeded. Incomparably beautiful, the 1961 Galaxie maintains its distinction—as originals always do.

Styling is only part of Galaxie's distinction: this is the car that's beautifully built to take care of itself. The '61 Ford goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications... 4,000 miles between oil changes. Brakes adjust automatically.

The muffler is built to last three times as long as ordinary ones. The body is specially treated to resist rust and corrosion. The finish never needs waxing.

Wouldn't it make sense to STOP spending money on an old car that can never do for you what a new Ford can do?

Wife Seeks $50,000 For Husband's Injuries

A $50,000 suit for alleged damages was filed in Edwardsville circuit court last week by Mrs. George A. Lynn, of 2013 Fourth street.

Mrs. Lynn claims in the suit that her husband was disabled as to be unable to perform his usual work and marital duties because of an auto accident March 21, 1960, on State A-10 Road Route 35 where it intersects with Sand Prairie Road in Collinsville township.

Co-defendants are Mrs. Audrey Bukovac of 2102 Namoli road, and Eugene Brewer of Collinsville.

The plaintiff claims carelessness and negligence caused the accident which injured her husband. The claim states that George Lynn, the husband, was a passenger in his own car which was driven by Mrs. Bukovac at the time of the accident. Brewer, the other defendant, crashed into the Lynn machine, the claim asserts.

GC Prepares For Summer Street Work, Buys Materials

Materials for Granite City's annual summer street maintenance program—and 200 tons of salt for winter use—were purchased Monday night by the city council.

Oil, liquid asphalt and rock, patching asphalt and culverts are being obtained for both arterial and non-arterial streets.

Under the arterial street program, financed by state motor fuel tax funds, the city is buying from Midwest Blacktop Roads, Inc., East St. Louis, the lone bidder, the following materials: 15,500 gallons of road oil at 14 cents a gallon, $2170; 62,800 gallons of liquid asphalt at 17 cents a gallon, $10,676, and 3198 tons of rock at $5.28 a ton, $16,885.

The same firm was the only bidder for the non-arterial streets—18,000 gallons of liquid asphalt, $3060, and 616 tons of rock, $3262.

Meclear Asphalt Co., East St. Louis, was low bidder for supplying 200 tons of cold mix asphalt to be used on arterial streets. The bid totaled $2560 on the basis of $8 a ton. The city also is buying 20 tons, $160, for non-arterial street patching.

Other arterial street materials include 30,000 pounds of packaged asphalt for patching on a bid of $43.50 a ton for a total of $1305, with Standard Oil Co. the bidder; 120 feet of 12-inch culvert from Missouri Boiler Co., St. Louis, at a cost of $102, and the 200 tons of salt in 100-pound bags at a cost of $18.10 a ton—$3620—from International Salt Co., St. Louis.

The St. Louis firm, which will make deliveries on a round-the-clock basis, seven days a week, was low bidder.

Teacher Reassignments By Madison School Board

Transfer of three teachers to new positions within the Madison school district was approved Tuesday night during a meeting of the Madison school board.

Effective in September, Mrs. Doris Salerno will become a second grade teacher at Harris school, Mrs. Valerie Stevens will be in charge of vocal music at Madison high school and the Harris and Louis Baer elementary schools, and Sampson Platt will become instructor of the sixth grade at Louis Baer school.

All positions to which the personnel were transferred are vacant at the present time due to earlier teacher resignations or leaves of absence.

Mrs. Salerno was a high school instructor during the past year, while Mrs. Stevens and Platt were assigned to the junior high school. Their transfers cover vacancies in the positions they formerly held which are to be filled before the 1961-62 school year begins.

In other action involving personnel, the board granted an indefinite leave of absence to William C. Hamerik, Madison high school custodian. Effective July 3, the leave is for reasons of health.

Employed as a replacement was John C. Severine. The board also received and placed on file three cooks' applications, one clerical application and two for custodial jobs.

School Audit

The board engaged the accounting firm of C. J. Schlosser & Co., Granite City, to audit school district accounts during July.

Estimated cost of the service was $650-$700, and it is to include the setting up of accounts for the coming year under a new system which will go into effect and the instruction of clerical personnel who handle the accounts.

The board approved for payment salaries for May and June for three schools and No. 2 fuel oil for heating purposes for the 1961-62 school year.

May salaries included $7,343 for instruction, $112 for custodians, $305 for health, $1333 for clerical, $424 for attendance and $133 for legal work, a total of $9570.

May bills were made up of $49,343 in the educational fund, $430 in the building fund, $5000 in the building bond fund and $5501 in the school lunch fund, totaling $60,083.

June salaries approved for payment included $32,863 for instruction, $4895 for custodians, $348 for health, $1211 for clerical and $153 for legal, a total of $39,412.

To Seek Fuel Bids

Supt. Wensel Brown was authorized to call for bids on marked, oiled and washed coal for three schools and No. 2 fuel oil for heating purposes for the 1961-62 school year.

The board approved the Hollywood-Andrews studio price of $1 per student for the taking of pictures and furnishing of prints to grade and high school students. The price includes one 4 1/2 x 6 1/2 inch print and one dozen wallet-sized prints.

Also approved were arrangements with the Markely studio of Madison for senior class portraits for 1962. The prices range from $3.75 to $21.98, depending on the number and size of prints required by individual students.

Good spread for crackers: Put cooked smoked tongue through the fine blade of a food chopper along with sharp cheddar cheese. Mix in mayonnaise and pickle relish to taste.

Chain of Rocks Micro-Midget Track Will Host State Championship Races

Members of the Chain of Rocks Micro-Midget Racing Association will play host to drivers from all parts of the state Saturday as the local track stages the Illinois state championship races. Over 100 drivers and as many cars are expected to participate.

Events at the track, located on Bypass 66-40 between the Chain of Rocks canal and river bridges, will begin at 12:30 p.m. with qualifying runs and time trials in two classifications.

The first of eight short heat races is scheduled at 2:30 p.m., and drivers will continue racing a.m. and main event preparation throughout the afternoon.

At 7:30 p.m., the final event will begin with running of 50-lap trophy races in "B" division (limited displacement) and open classes.

The day's activities will conclude with the running of two 100-lap class "A" features for the championship of Illinois, one each in the IF and open divisions for engines of different displacement.

Queenie "Pat" Peterson of the local association said members of the Chain of Rocks racing club will be represented in the events, and an especially strong contingent of entries is expected from Charleston, Ill.

The racing circuit is one-half mile in length, with banked corners.

East Alton Trips Local Jr. Legion Monday, 7-6

East Alton's American Legion post pushed across the deciding tally on a single, passed ball and fielder's choice in the sixth inning to defeat the Mathews Chevrolet-Post 113 Junior Legion club 7-6 Monday evening at Lee Park in Venice.

It was the first loss of the season for Post 113, and actually the squad's first game although it is 1-1 after being awarded a forfeit over Collinsville last week.

John Heck got credit for the win after Mathews had erupted for a four-run fourth inning to knock out starter Ed Parsons.

Grant Takmanian was the loser. East Alton's big frame against him was a four-run third, spiced by a leadoff triple by Ken Heinz.

Heck gave up two hits and one in the 2½ innings which he pitched. Grant Takmanian was the loser.

Hearts, Mercer Are Matched Against I-C 'Weak Sisters' For Sunday Diamond Action

"Kick 'em while they're down" might well be the motto of Southern Illinois Inter-City Baseball League Blue division leader Mercer Funeral Home.

Currently riding the crest of a five-game winning streak after having dropped three out of four in the first month of the season, Mercer travels to Maryville to play the Red Sox, who bring up the rear in the Red division, seven full games off the pace being set by Moose Lodge No. 4 of East St. Louis.

Seven is not a magic number for Manager Don Lucas. He has employed seven different pitchers on occasion this spring in an unsuccessful attempt to find the right man for the job.

The Blue division traditionally fields the stronger teams—from top to bottom—but Red members have pulled a switch up to this point. They have a 22-19 overall mark, while Blue teams stand just the opposite—19-22.

A comparison of records of the separate divisions brings to light the fact that strength seems to have shifted this season from one to the other.

There has been a successful season, speaking conservatively. Carpenter, host for the game, is in last place in the Blue division with a 2-5 mark.

Troy McAttee Clash Sunday's fifth game will have watching, especially by followers of Mercer. Troy plays McAttee Clash in East St. Louis. The Red birds gave Mercer all kinds of trouble before they were edged 4-2 last week, and McAttee trails first-place Mercer by one win game.

100 To Enter Boat Races Sponsored By Local Clubs July 30

More than 100 drivers are expected to enter their craft in the July 30 boat races, co-sponsored by the Granite City Kiwanis club and the Granite City Bow Line Boat club. William Seibold, entry chairman, said this week, Seibold, who operates a boat shop here, said hydroplane and runabout races will be entered in 10 classifications.

He said a one-mile oval course will be used at the mouth of the Hartford canal and Mississippi river.

A veteran racer and member of the boat and Kiwanis clubs, Seibold does not expect to enter the events but said that his son, William Seibold Jr., also a nationally-known racing driver, will be in the competition.

Other local persons to enter include Paul Bogosian and Robert and William McFarland.

Kiwanis club members heard a report at their Monday meeting that advertisements for programs are being solicited to help finance the affair.

Admission is to be $1 per car and parking space for 3000 automobiles is to be provided.

Charges Against Driver—Madison police filed three charges at 9:25 a.m. Tuesday against Robert Shaw, 34, Lemay, Mo. Booked for double-parking at 1118 Madison avenue, leaving the vehicle unattended with the motor running and no driver's license, he was released on cash bonds until tomorrow.

Mayhem On Highways Worse Than Ever Before

If Quad-Cityans were to desert the highways for some other means of travel, they could hardly be blamed. With 20 traffic fatalities through June 17, the community has already surpassed its final 1960 toll of 19. Never before have so many local residents and travelers lost their lives in so short a period of time.

A tally of 20 auto deaths in 24 weeks is enough to cause motorists to lose faith in their collective driving skill and judgment. Somehow a concern for safety is not receiving enough attention. When will the current year's highway mayhem stop?

New Juvenile, County Office Quarters Under Consideration

Proposed purchase of a building adjoining the county jail, instead of construction of a new juvenile detention home, is an interesting development. Advocates cite lower total cost and an opportunity to provide needed room for expansion of county offices as well as facilities for juveniles.

Since the plan involves converting present women's jail cells into quarters for juveniles, it would seem to be similar to the present arrangements and far less satisfactory than a new juvenile home, which has fallen into at least temporary disrepair due to unexpectedly high construction bids.

Yet an alternative to the original juvenile home plan is viewed as desirable by some officials, who note potential county financial problems and point to possible use of part of the $207,000 netted thus far for it from county sales taxes. This sum has been earmarked by the county for juvenile quarters and improvement of the jail and courthouse.

The economy move merits definite study, even though the proposal as it currently stands is less than desirable. If some middle course can be charted that includes reasonable accommodations for juveniles, the end result could ease both the courthouse space problem and the county's finances.

Regular Study Of State Spending Could Cut Waste

State spending has mushroomed over the years and there seems to be little that the average individual can do to stem the tide. One possible answer is the proposal that an independent organization pursue actual spending at Springfield on a non-partisan basis and publicize its findings every week.

The bi-partisan "economy bloc" at Springfield, which already has spotlighted some instances of artificially high costs, estimates that the full-time study program might cost $30,000 to $40,000 annually but potentially could point the way to savings of millions of dollars. It is felt that the fact that vouchers were being checked would be a strong deterrent to waste. The Taxpayers Federation of Illinois has agreed to undertake the task if there is enough public interest and pledges of financial support.

In as vast a system as the state government and all its departments, there are certain to be procedures, customs and political practices which result in waste but go largely undetected. A year-round perusal—perhaps patterned after the General Accounting Office which uncovers waste at the federal level—could help to assure a dollar's worth of goods and services for each tax dollar.

Illogical Taxing Proposals Threat To Local Families

Taxes, taxes and more taxes. Hardly a day has gone by recently in which some new form of taxation has not either been discussed or voted on at Springfield. Some proposals have been logical but some, unfortunately, have not.

One of the most illogical comes to mind with announcement that Illinois city sales taxes collected in April on March purchases grossed $4,572,404 for 1121 municipalities. Not more than a handful of the cities has voiced a desire for higher sales taxes, and yet new state legislation would authorize doubling of the tax—depriving families of over $50,000,000 a year but not helping one bit to balance the state budget.

Perhaps the cities ought to either forego this $50 million and let money-short Illinois have it or, better still, give it to the cities and assign $50 million of state responsibilities to them.

Venice City Garage Project Can Bring Several Benefits

Venice city officials' plan to seek title to Klein street property formerly used as a postwar quonset hut housing project will enable several improvements to be carried out in the city hall area. With the street department garage relocated, the present dilapidated garage building can be razed, more parking space created and direct access afforded to Lee Park for the first time.

Financed from McKinley Bridge revenue, the project would enhance both the appearance and functioning of the city hall, make possible an attractive park entrance and provide needed room for street equipment. We hope that the federal government's asking price for the land is not so high that the proposal is dropped.

Home Owners' Cooperation Needed To Combat Burglars

"Many home burglaries are the result of carelessness and could have been prevented," the Illinois Police Association says in urging that its suggestions be followed during observance of Burglary Prevention Week, June 25-July 1 and throughout the year. It urges that homes be left securely locked and that efforts be made to give them a "lived-in appearance" whether the occupants are at home or not.

In view of the heavy loss from thefts and the simplicity of the precautionary measures, we join in urging that the anti-burglary tips be followed. As the police association says, "Apprehending the criminal is the job of your police department, but the war against burglary can only be carried out effectively with home owners' cooperation."

Undergoes Surgery

Mrs. Edward Glazik, wife of a Granite City fire department captain, is recuperating at St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis, where she underwent surgery on Tuesday. Mrs. Glazik is secretary principal. The Glaziks reside at 3709 Fair Oaks drive.

Power Mower Taken

Gilbert Rodman, 2108 Illinois avenue, reported to Granite City police yesterday that a 25-hp power lawn mower was taken from his yard.

The FORUM

URGES COOPERATION WITH SCHOOL BOARD PRESIDENT

Gentlemen:

In almost every issue of your paper, I find an article concerning the members of the present school board. In most instances, these articles berate the school board president, Mr. Robert Spengler, for something he has allegedly done wrong. Yet, there never seems to be any proof that he actually did commit a wrong.

As an average Granite City citizen, I resent these articles you publish in your paper. The members of the school board represent the choice of the people, elected by due process of law in the American Democratic manner. As such, I do not believe they should be subjected to the criticism they have been receiving in your paper.

As a matter of fact, it appears to me, after reading the articles appearing in the Granite City Press-Record that Mr. Huber and Mr. Bischoff are full of sour grapes and are acting like children instead of men. I feel that if these men, along with your reporters, would cooperate with the president of the school board instead of fighting him that the people of Granite City would start reading articles in the good school board is accomplishing instead of those articles now appearing which constantly point out the faults (which I do not believe really are faults).

I don't have to tell you that the power of the press is a mighty force and that if used the wrong way can tear down much faster than it can build something. Our Granite City school system speaks for itself as one of the best in the nation and, again, I say that if your reporters and Mr. Huber and his constituents will cooperate with Mr. Spengler, instead of fighting him, that our Granite City school system will remain one of the best in the nation.

Respectfully yours,
ROBERT L. JAMES, SR.

SAYS HEADLINE GAVE FALSE IMPRESSION

Dear Sirs:

I find your reporting of the school board meetings a very fascinating form of entertainment, but the suggestion in the headline last night caused me to shudder. At first glance I thought someone in the administration was guilty of absconding funds. Perusal of the article, however, revealed only a misunderstanding between some fine public servants.

Every dollar is accounted for. All school board and administrators are clean. Shucks!

Very sincerely,
PAUL A. EVANS

Hein Lambert Sunbeams met Sunday at Second Baptist Church. The group made a book for the department entitled "African Friends." Time was spent making objects from clay, and a song was made up by the group.

Cards with the names of missionaries who had birthdays that day were given out, and prayer was given by Mrs. Betty Lewis, who also told a story of an African boy.

Refreshments were served to all, and a "follow the leader" game was played. Closing prayers were by Gary Lewis and Debbie Withers. Others present were Gail Lewis, Bradley Crown, Paula Tidlock, Denise and Julie Whitson and Bob Lewis.

Summer Season To Open Sunday At Boy Scout Camp

More than 700 Boy Scouts of the Cahokia Mound Council, including several hundred Quad-City boys, will take part in the 1961 summer season at the council's Missouri campsite, the Sunken Scout Reservation near Potosi. First week of the six-week period will begin Sunday. Although a few vacancies remain, reservations have been arriving at a rapid pace and camp attendance is expected to equal or surpass last year's turnout. Early weeks are the fullest, and additional registrations are expected to be principally for the later weeks of the season, which will end Aug. 5.

Troops have been reserving specific Sunken campsites—Aldubon, Joliet, Boone, Carson, Clark, Crockett, Appleson, Lewis, Beard and Marquette.

Retreats, weekend camping and leader training have preceded the summer which include Explorer scouts' canoe trips from the Sunken area and "Webelos Day" Saturday, July 1, for prospective Boy Scouts, ages 10 and a half years old. Fathers and sons will visit Camp Sunken on that day.

Program planning sessions are being held among the scouting units in advance of the camping season so that schedules at Sunken can be coordinated.

The program at the camp, situated in the Missouri Ozarks, will emphasize outdoor adventures and scouting skills, with swimming, hikes, cooking, campfires, use of ropes, axes, nature study, first-aid, lifesaving, marksmanship and other activities.

Final Rehearsals

First 'Music Under Stars' Presentation On June 29

The finishing touches to the Granite City park district's first "Music Under the Stars" presentation of the summer are being applied this week, Musical Director Warren G. Simpkins said today.

The variety program will be presented at 8 p. m. Thursday, June 29, on an outdoor stage near the 27th street and Delmar avenue entrance to the park, and is open to the public free of charge.

Simpkins said a 45-voice chorus will present excerpts from "My Fair Lady" and "South Pacific." Miss June Nightwine, recent recipient of a Metropolitan Opera audition scholarship, will be the featured soloist, and a group of local folk dancers also will perform.

A community sing featuring familiar songs, the words to which will be flashed on a large screen, is an added feature this year. Simpkins said the program will be about an hour in length. The chorus and soloists will continue rehearsals each Tuesday and Thursday evening in preparation for the presentation of the second "Music Under the Stars" program on July 27 and 28, a Gilbert and Sullivan review.

Excerpts from the light operettas "The Mikado," "Pirates of Penzance," "Rolanthe" and "HMS Pinafore" will be presented.

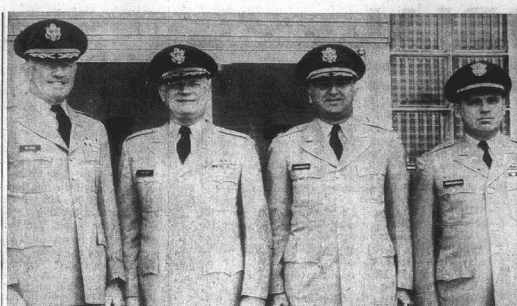

Assisting Simpkins will be Wayne Hubbard, drama coach; Miss Diana Taylor, choreography; and Miss Nancy Oshlecker, in charge of scenery. The second program also will be presented free of charge.

GC Depot To Test Air Raid Warnings

Sirens at the Granite City Engineer Depot will sound a "red warning" at 1:45 p. m. tomorrow as an air raid signal test, it was announced today. The sirens will give a three-minute fluctuating signal.

Another test will be conducted at 4 p. m. next Wednesday when depot sirens sound three steady one-minute blasts with two-minute intervals, known as the "white warning."

No maneuvers or other action is planned in conjunction with the signals, which will be mainly an equipment test.

Zone Change Sought At 27th, Benton Sts.

Referred to the Plan Commission by Granite City council members Monday night was a request from the Cahokia Boy Scout Council for a zoning change to C-1 commercial from R-2 residential for two vacant lots on the west side of Benton street at 27th street.

The Scout council is hoping to erect an office building there and leave rented quarters in the downtown Apple building, Niedringhaus avenue and State street.

A design for the building has not yet been prepared. The council at present has a $5000 donation for the proposed building, given by Carl Graham, local book store operator.

MRS. BONNIE FULLER, 2707 Roosevelt street, an artist specializing in portraits, shown with a family of the Cherokee Indians she painted while vacationing in Oklahoma.

GC Housewife Takes Vacation To Paint Indian Portraits

While most vacationers are spending their two weeks in the conventional places like Miami, Los Angeles and New York City, a versatile young Granite City housewife has found a rich vacationland in the unlikely spot of an Oklahoma Indian reservation. Mrs. Bonnie Fuller, 2707 Roosevelt street, housewife, mother of three, and commercial artist, returned last week from a vacation off the beaten track in not only locale, but purpose. She found the area around Salina, Okla., a tiny town in the northeastern part of the state, rich for many reasons. Her birthplace, it is one of the most scenic of rugged western regions. It is the site of a Cherokee Indian reservation steeped in historical significance. But of prime importance to Mrs. Fuller, who specializes in portrait painting, are the Indians themselves. For, Mrs. Fuller says, "they have the saddest, most expressive faces I've seen." Their primitive mode of life, she said, gives them Indians an old, patient gaze that cannot be found in any urban area, and has vanished from most rural regions. She noted especially the chiseled quality of a Cherokee mother's face. A realist in portrait style, Mrs. Fuller completed two Indian studies during her two-week stay in Salina. She will include them in a coming exhibit in Granite City. Last fall she staged a one-man exhibit in the public library.

Building In GC Nears $250,000 Mark For Month

New construction in Granite City is nearing the quarter-million-dollar mark this month with 24 building permits valued at $146,110 issued to date, increasing the bulk totals to 48 permits with a value of $221,000. City building inspector Earl Bloomquist and City Clerk A. L. Stevens point out that four of the recent permits are for new dwellings with a value of $71,000, and there also were three permits for commercial developments amounting to $34,500.

Obtaining permits for dwellings were James Frey, contractor, for two $20,000 homes to be located at 34 and 38 Oaklawn drive, to be built of brick veneer with attached garages; and L.S. M. Builders, for an $18,115 brick and frame with seven rooms, bath, two half-baths and garage at 2824 Sunset drive and an $18,285 frame at 2827 Sunset drive.

Also was issued a permit for a $13,000 expenditure to remodel a market building at 2631 Low street. The $13,000 was while G. H. Sternberg Co. obtained two permits—to remodel the former Co. building at 1818 Delmar avenue, for Ben Schermer Hardware at a cost of $17,500; and also a $40,000 permit for construction of a steel storage building, 20x30 feet at the construction firm's office, 1609 Delmar avenue.

The Sternberg firm secured a $15,000 permit for construction of the War Memorial fountain at Memorial Park, Niedringhaus Madison avenues.

Home Improvements

Twelve permits with a total value of $8210 were issued for home improvement projects. They were obtained by Richard Hamilton, $1100 for a room addition at 2212 Le. ILLINOIS POWER

INITIAL PHASES of pumping operations to dewater the 20th street sewer line for a $100,000 repair job. The above scene is near Omaha street where workers, operating sump pumps and hose, are endeavoring to empty a Granite City Steel Co. manhole. All the work is to prepare for cleaning and relining about 1300 feet of 51-inch sewer.

JACKHAMMER JABS at concrete curing as other workers prepare for the widening and resurfacing of 20th street. The above work is at the Park avenue intersection. The street is to be widened 11 feet on each side.

Fire In Air Conditioner
A minor fire about 3:15 p. m. Tuesday at the Western Union office, 1835 State street, caused an estimated $20 damage to the motor. Firemen from the main station answered the alarm.

GUSHING WATER coming from 20th street sewer line, passing through surface pipeline into a manhole. A 320-foot section of the 51-inch sewer is being emptied to allow workers to clean and reline the sewer. Water from this manhole will be pumped into another manhole through surface pipelines.

Relining Work Begins On $100,000 Sewer Project

Relining operations on the $100,000 sewer repair project under 20th street began this week on a 320-foot section near Omaha street.

Indiana Gunitite Co. workers sandblasted the 51-inch section and installed wire meshing in preparation to applying the two-inch concrete layer to the walls. The dewatering process for the section was completed last week through a surface pipeline.

Because of the traffic vibrations in the sewer, 20th street is closed from Madison avenue to Edwardsville road.

To allow workers to clean the section, sewage from the Omaha street line is being diverted and refuse remaining was pumped to a manhole.

Another pump is stationed at the manhole, pushing sewage through 18-inch pipeline running 1350 feet along 20th street to Iowa street, also to blocked off manholes.

The cleaning and relining project is to be completed within 80 days, a job superintendent said.

Prepare For Street Work
When completed, 20th street from Madison avenue to Edwardsville road will be widened 11 feet on each side and resurfaced with asphalt.
